10. LETTING OF UNITS

All tenants of units and other persons granted rights or occupancy by any owner of the relevant unit are obliged to comply with these conduct rules, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any lease or any grant of rights of occupancy.

11. ERADICATION OF PESTS

An owner shall keep his section free of white ants, borer and other wood destroying insects and to this end shall permit the Trustees, the Managing Agent, and their duly authorised agents or employees, to enter upon his section from time to time for the purpose of inspecting the section and taking such action as may be reasonably necessary to eradicate any such pests. The costs of the inspection, eradicating any such pests as may be found within the section, replacement of any woodwork or other material forming part of such section which may be damaged by any such pests shall be borne by the owner of the section concerned.

12. FINES

Owners will be fined if they, or their tenants, or their visitors, contravene any Body Corporate conduct or management rules. The fine will be equal to one months levy (applicable at the time) for first offence, with one warning letter preceding the fine. The fine for a second offence will be equal to two months levies (applicable at the time) with no prior warnings. The fine for a third offence will be equal to three months levies (applicable at the time) with no prior warnings. Should more than three fines be imposed within any part of a year, the appropriate fines will be levied and legal action will be taken without further notice. When a letter/fine is sent/imposed, a fee is also payable for the administrative costs incurred.

The trustees shall have the power to fine owners who transgress these rules with the applicable fine. Owners are reminded that all correspondence is sent per post to either their registered domicilium and or email address and shall be deemed to have been received after 7 workings days. Owners are further reminded that they are responsible for the actions of their tenants and they should take the appropriate action against their tenant.
